

AP English Literature and Composition Tone Vocabulary and Syntax Activity

Part I

Choose 15 words from any of the tone vocabulary lists 1-10 and write grammatically accurate sentences using the following directives and relying on the Writers INC textbook as a guide when necessary:

1. the definition of the word as an appositive modifying the vocabulary word
2. a loose sentence
3. a compound sentence with coordinating conjunction
4. a complex sentence with dependent introductory clause
5. a periodic sentence
6. a compound sentence with a semicolon
7. a complex sentence beginning with independent clause
8. a balanced sentence
9. a vocabulary word used as the object of the preposition
10. a dash
11. a cumulative sentence
12. a simple sentence with a linking verb and a predicate nominative or predicate adjective
13. an inverted sentence
14. dialogue with quotation marks
15. an antithesis

Part II

Using at least three vocabulary words, create a super-short story in the form of a three-framed panel (storyboard).

--	--	--

Part III

In two separate storyboards, illustrate two pivotal scenes from literary works we have read thus far this semester, using three vocabulary words in each.