Excerpt from Battle of Maldon

Thought shall be the harder, the heart the keener, courage the greater, as our strength lessens.
Here lies our leader all cut down,
the valiant man in the dust;
always may he mourn who now thinks to turn away from this warplay.

I am old, I will not go away, but I plan to lie down by the side of my lord, by the man so dearly loved.

-- (Battle of Maldon)

Knowledge:
List the literary works
given from both the Anglo-Saxons and Middle Age times.

Comprehension:
How did the Battle of Sluys affect the integration of the French and English
language to the already set Celtic language?

Application:
What was the change
between the Anglo-
Saxon and Middle Age
feudal system?

Analysis: Compare the dwellings of the Anglo-Saxons and Middle Ages.

Synthesis:
Using your prior knowledge compare
the weapons of
these times to those of our day.

Evaluate:
In comparing our past
time, and heirs, which
do you think was
most entertaining and
enjoyable.
