

Character Body Map

Directions: Choose two dynamic characters from *Hamlet and two from The Importance of Being Earnest. Using construction paper, create body maps to reveal complex and essential ideas about each character. Draw a simple body outline on the page, and complete each statement as it applies to the character, recording it in the proper location. Support each statement with a quotation (or quotations) from the text. You may choose to record multiple statements for the same element.
