

Brave New World* chapter 1

1. Why is the first sentence strange? What does it set up?
2. What is the meaning of the World State's motto "COMMUNITY, IDENTITY, STABILITY"?
3. Why does the fertilizing room look so cold, when it is actually hot inside? What goes on there?
4. Why do particulars "make for virtue and happiness," while generalities "are intellectually necessary evils"?
5. How do people know who they are in this society?
6. Why use the Bokanovsky process at all? How is it an instrument of "social stability"?
7. Why don't the Epsilons "need human intelligence?"
