Writing Prompt: Vocabulary in Action

Write a narrative (telling a story) or descriptive (depicting something: an object, person, event, etc.) essay. Here are your prompt choices:

- Lost
- Running away
- Funny now – not then
- Home
- No longer a child
- Unbelievable
- The other side
- The key

Here's the "catch": your essay must use twenty vocabulary words you have learned thus far (underline them, please). With ten of these words, you must use a part of speech other than the one you were given (circle them, please).

There is no length limit; however, your work will have to be at least three paragraphs in order to qualify as an essay.
