

The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

pre-reading questions

If you had a friend who was making a choice that you were sure would either get him or her in trouble or cause harm, would you . . . ?

- A. Become involved, even if he or she didn't want you to, doing everything in your power to convince your friend to change.
- B. Not interfere, respecting your friend's independence. If your friend needs you, he or she will let you know.

Explain your choice, providing relevant evidence in support of your position.

Allusion?

- Have you heard the phrase Jekyll and Hyde? If so, in what context(s)?
- What does this phrase mean to you?

Duality?
