

The Twelve Great Olympians

Edith Hamilton's Mythology
pages 24-35

- Read the descriptions of each of the twelve Olympians and make notes. Focus on their roles, settings, symbols (significant animals, objects, and trees), relationships, and personality traits.
- Create an illustration for each of the twelve. Make sure to include symbols and use color in a meaningful way.
- Label each with an alliterative heading that indicates the god or goddess's personality.
